Australian Music Examinations Board (New South Wales)

Rules – 2024 Board election

1. Eligibility for nomination and to vote for the six elected members of the Board (from AMEB (NSW) Constitution updated April 2018)

(4) The elected members shall be drawn from persons eligible to vote under the Board's constitution:

- a) three (3) persons elected for a term of two (2) years by eligible private music teachers in New South Wales, pursuant to clause (4A), of which at least two must be teachers of candidates of practical AMEB examinations and no more than one can also be an examiner;
- b) one (1) person elected for a term of two (2) years by eligible private speech and drama teachers in New South Wales, pursuant to clause (4A);
- c) two (2) persons from among the current body of practical music examiners and elected by them for a term of two (2) years of which one must be an examiner of AMEB piano examinations and one must be an examiner of other than AMEB piano examinations.

(4A) a person is eligible to vote for the applicable elected teacher members if the person has entered a minimum of six candidates for the applicable practical examinations conducted by AMEB (NSW), and those candidates have successfully completed the requirements of those examinations, in each of the two years preceding the year in which the election is held.

2. General

- Persons who are both teachers and accredited examiners, and who meet the criteria for eligibility in the categories outlined above, may vote for each category of elected members for which they are eligible, but are only eligible to nominate or to accept being nominated for election to represent one category.
- Self-enrolled candidates are not eligible to nominate or to be nominated for election, or to vote, unless they meet the requirements in (4)a, (4)b and/or (4)c above.
- Elected members in any category will be decided by the most number of votes cast.
- In the event of an election tie for one of the available positions, the ex officio Chairperson of the Board will make a recommendation to the Minister for appointment of one of the tied nominees.
